New Criminal Investigators Institute

WHO SHOULD ATTEND THIS SEMINAR?

This five-day seminar is designed specifically for the new criminal investigator, personnel who anticipate future criminal investigation unit assignment, and those with little or no previous formal training on topics relating to the methodology and procedures involved in this phase of law enforcement.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM:

The overall and basic objective is to provide the new or soon to be criminal investigator with an understanding of various aspects of criminal investigation. Through instructor classroom presentations coupled with textbook readings and suggestive references connected to these classroom presentations, participants should gain a solid foundation and understanding of basic investigative techniques and be mentally prepared for more advanced study on the topic.
